

Former Saifun president Kobi Rozengarten joins JVP
Rozengarten was president of Saifun for 10 years and is still a member of its board.

Batya Feldman 18 Jun 07 16:45

Former Saifun Semiconductors Ltd. (Nasdaq:SFUN) president Kobi Rozengarten has joined Jerusalem Venture Partners (JVP) as a managing partner.

JVP brands itself as a fund focusing on building technology-based market leaders in the areas of media technologies in Israel and worldwide.

Rozengarten brings over 20 years of experience in senior management positions at global semiconductor companies, including VP Business Development at Kulicke and Soffa Industries, and finance planning and control manager at Elbit Systems Ltd. (Nasdaq: ESLT; TASE: ESLT).

Published by Globes [online], Israel business news - www.globes.co.il - on June 18, 2007